

Q: What would make people want a very strong government?

Q: Would people be more likely to support a dictator that promised national greatness in return for absolute power when their country was weak or when their country was already powerful? Why?

Key Term to Understand:

Fascist

extreme militarism

+

extreme nationalism

(add this definition next to word on front of Stalin card)

Q: What is militarism and what is nationalism?

Joseph Stalin

Fascist Totalitarian Dictator-U.S.S.R

1. His Goal
2. Five Year Plans
3. Collectivization
4. Secret Police
5. Great Purge
6. Who he makes deal with

BACK

1. Make USSR a world power
2. Plans for industrializing USSR
3. Peasants "collected" on gov't-run farms (no private property)
4. "KGB"--spies on citizens
5. Stalin executes anyone who might oppose him (genocide)
6. Hitler - agree not to attack each other

Reflection:

Why would the Soviets be willing to turn to a leader that was extremely militaristic and extremely nationalistic?