

Which Place?

Which colony used to be home to the Mughal Empire and was conquered by the British as a place from which Britain could acquire resources for its textile industry?

India

In which colony would the people be revolting against the French if their nationalist desires caused them to want to start a revolution for independence?

Vietnam (Indochina)

Which place would begin to be able to rival the European countries because it industrialized itself?

Japan

Which place was desired by European countries because of its strategic location and the impact it could have on travel and trade?

Egypt (Suez Canal)

Which place started a nationalist movement called the National Congress?

India

Which place was fought over by Russia and Japan?

Korea

Which place stopped being isolationist, began to industrialize, and became a wealthy and powerful nation that would later begin to take over Asia?

Japan

Which place used to have trading enclaves for Europeans that later grew into spheres of influence controlled by Europeans?

China